

I understand that our Wisconsin no-call list under legal attack from a national bankers association. I am on the Wisconsin no-call list and the past few years have been a relief. If I want to find out information from a bank or any other business, I can pick up the phone and make the call myself. I do not need any business, whether it's a bank or any telemarketer, calling me and wasting my time.